Raising Funds for
Macmillan Cancer Support

'YOU CAN'T PREPARE FOR A CANCER DIAGNOSIS. BUT THE BEST PEOPLE TO SUPPORT YOU ARE PEOPLE WHO KNOW WHAT THEY'RE TALKING ABOUT – PEOPLE LIKE MACMILLAN.'

When Ian's wife Kate was diagnosed with cervical cancer at the age of 30, it was a huge shock. And they were devastated when they found out it was incurable. Thankfully Kate's Macmillan nurse Vikki was there for her. And Ian's also used Macmillan's services. 'The link from the Macmillan website is where it all starts really. That's the hub of all knowledge.'

Now Ian, Kate and daughter Grace are trying to stay positive and enjoy the time they've got together. Ian's even done several events for Macmillan, including the London Marathon. 'We want to raise as much money as possible and put something back in, especially now we're using the services.'

Cancer is the toughest fight most of us will ever face. But no one should go through it alone. The Macmillan team is with you every step of the way, from the nurses and therapists helping you through treatment to the campaigners improving cancer care.

Together, we are all Macmillan Cancer Support.

WE ARE MACMILLAN.
CANCER SUPPORT

Welcome

On behalf of all at Furnival Chambers may we offer you a sincere welcome to "Strictly Furnival - Murder on the Dancefloor". We hope you enjoy your evening with us.

Our very own Joanna McEgan meeting Craig Revel Horwood

The brainchild of Stephen Moses, this event was conceived in order to raise money for Macmillan Cancer Support and in honour of Joanna McEgan whom many of you know was diagnosed with cancer six years ago and has bravely battled against it ever since. She is an inspiration to us all.

Cancer is the toughest fight most of us will ever face. But no one should go through it alone. The Macmillan team is with those who battle every step of the way, from the nurses and therapists helping them through treatment to the campaigners improving cancer care. They are a wonderful charity and we urge you to give what you can and support it in any way possible.

Our thanks go to all those who have been involved in tonight's event, particularly Craig Revel Horwood, Denise Van Outen, Russell Grant, His Honour Judge Francis Sheridan and the cast of BBC's 'Silk', who have all donated their time freely for this great cause. Thanks also to the Paul Stone Band, Charlotte Oates, Helen McInnes from EPS, Rebecca Amery from Peony Flowers and MUA Creative for hair & makeup. Thank you to our sponsors including Rolex UK and The Economist Group for their kind generosity. We're grateful to Fearn Events & Communications Ltd for delivering this event and the volunteers from St. John Ambulance, who will all be looking after you this evening.

And finally, thank you to you for being our guests and for your generosity.

Keep Dancing!

Sally O'Neill Q.C., Oliver Blunt Q.C.

Celebrity Profiles

Amanda Altard

CRAIG REVEL HORWOOD

Craig is a well-known face on television in the UK and now, all over the world as a judge on all ten series of BBC1's Strictly Come Dancing, presented by Bruce Forsyth and Tess Daly.

He was also a judge on Strictly Come Dancing Special, Comic Relief Does Fame Academy, Strictly Ice Dancing, Strictly African Dancing and appears regularly on BBC2's It Takes Two with Zoe Ball.

In 2012 Craig won the BBC 2 series Maestro at the Opera, the final of which saw him conduct Act II of La Bohème at the Royal Opera House. He was also a grand finalist on the hit cooking show, Celebrity MasterChef and participated in and won Ready, Steady, Cook. Craig has also recently appeared on The Wright Stuff, Would I Lie to You?, Market Kitchen, Celebrity Juice, John Bishop's Britain, Fern, Scream if you Know the Answer, Pointless, Great Antiques Roadtrip, Lunch with Gino and Mel, 8 out of 10 Cats, The Magicians, Alan Carr Chatty Man, Be Your Own Boss, The Royal Variety Performance, Room 101 and The Sarah Millican Television Programme.

DENISE VAN OUTEN

A charismatic, energetic and engaging presenter, Denise has become a household name in Britain, thanks to roles on mainstream terrestrial shows such as The Big Breakfast and more recently BBC's Any Dream Will Do, I'd Do Anything and ITV's Who Dares Sings! She reached the final of the highly successful and long running BBC1 show 'Strictly Come Dancing' in December 2012.

Not content with being a star of the small screen alone, Denise also showed exceptional talent on the stage, appearing in several productions in the West End and on Broadway. Leaving no stone unturned Denise has extended her talent to dramas, feature films and radio, and is well established as the UK's most respected all round female entertainer.

The Dancers

1.

JANE BICKERSTAFF Q.C. (9 BEDFORD ROW)

Age: 46. Occupation: Barrister.

Previous dancing experience: None (whilst sober).

But... "Mother said I was a dancer before I could walk. She said I began to argue before I could talk! And this is Macmillan, a wonderful thing. Everyone watching as we do our thing! ..." I'm honoured to take part tonight.

MARTIN SECRETT (CROWN PROSECUTION SERVICE)

An avid Strictly fan, who leapt at chance to participate. Following many years learning to march in the TA, how difficult could the footwork be? Answer: painful both physically and mentally learning to do just a 90 seconds Jive. Tonight I will do my best to represent the clerking community and help raise funds for a very worthy cause.

Jive

KIM HOLLIS Q.C. (25 BEDFORD ROW)

Like us, most in this room are likely to have been affected by this illness. For those of us who have had breast cancer, Kim wanted to demonstrate that life can still be as full of energy and fun, bringing new and different challenges. Kim is dancing to thank her incredibly supportive family and friends.

HIS HONOUR JUDGE JOHN PRICE

(SOUTHWARK CROWN COURT)

His Honour Judge John Price is dancing in memory of his best friend Sir James Hunt who sadly lost his brave battle in November 2006.

Waltz

3.

NADIA RYMAN (BLACKFORDS SOLICITORS)

Nadia has over 20 years dance training but only 9 weeks of learning Latin ballroom. She is delighted to be helping raise money for Macmillan, and is aware of their wonderful work due to her father in law sadly losing his fight with cancer in 2008 and her mother in law recently being diagnosed with breast cancer. Nadia would like to thank Blackfords and her family for all their support in fulfilling her strictly dream.

ALAN COUSINS (HM PRISONS)

Alan, a Prison Law consultant with 20 years experience of governing prisons, is thrilled to be dancing here supporting Macmillan. Also in musical theatre where he met his real life partner, he has held principal parts in Camelot, Hello Dolly, Copacabana and Titanic. He can now be seen in Jekyll and Hyde as John Utterson.

Paso Doble

CAROLINA GUILOFF (25 BEDFORD ROW)

Why? When Jeremy asked me to be his dance partner "no" was not an option- not just because of his irresistible powers of persuasion, or because it's an important cause, but also because it promised to be huge fun. It's definitely come "up to proof." Me? I just gotta dance.

JEREMY DEIN Q.C. (25 BEDFORD ROW)

What is common to Salsa and jury trials? Energy, passion, fearlessness. Why that bloke from 25 BR you wonder? The chance to dance with the adorable Carolina - and, above all, tonight's cause. Thanks to my parents for a fantastic career at the Bar, to my 4 children for making life special, to Lee, a beautiful and inspirational wife, especially for the introduction to Salsa - my defence tonight, marital coercion !!

Salsa

5.

SASHA BAILEY (2 PUMP COURT)

Sasha is a criminal barrister at 2 Pump Court and a massive fan of Strictly. Often found dancing round her flat when doing her cleaning, this was too good an opportunity to pass up. Macmillan is a charity very close to her heart. She wishes she could keep her frock.

STEVEN FITZPATRICK (2 PUMP COURT)

Graceful, rhythmic, poised... words that have never been used to describe Steven Fitzpatrick. Steven is a Barrister at 2 Pump Court. He decided to enter this competition when someone told him that he looked good on his feet, unfortunately they were talking about his advocacy style not his moves on the dance floor.

Argentine Tango

CHARLOTTE O'CONNOR (9 BEDFORD ROW)

When a Twinkle Toes such as Adrian asks you to be his dancing partner it's impossible to resist. We wanted to do the Samba roll. Sadly, our roll looked more Subway than Samba so we won't be sharing it with you. But - no less tasty - here's the final version. Enjoy!

ADRIAN AMER (9 BEDFORD ROW)

After the sudden recent death of a partner I decided that life is too short and that doing something charitable might alleviate someone's suffering. 55, fat, bald, greying and dancing the Samba I suspect will lift everyone's spirit and at least bring a smile to your faces! Enjoy your evening!

Samba

7.

LISA WILDING (OLD BAILEY CHAMBERS)

Lisa is a criminal barrister, wife and mum to two girls, Beanie (6) and Bella (1). An avid watcher of 'Strictly', she volunteered this evening to raise funds for a cause close to her heart, release her inner diva, get her hands on a fit man and in the hope her husband, girls (and hopefully Craig) will think she is 'FAB-U-LOUS'!

TOM VOYLE (LONDON WELSH)

Tom is the odd profession out in tonight's cast, having played professional rugby for Club and Country over the past 12 years. He has side-stepped his way into the competition to see if he can live up to the likes of Matt Dawson, Gavin Henson and Austin Healy who have all performed on SCD.

American Smooth

MARIA STALBOW (BARK & CO)

I am a solicitor and long-standing member of Bark & Co's criminal defence team. I was a massive fan of Grease when I was young, so when the chance to be Olivia Newton-John came up, I jumped at it! Whether our performance ends up being a-maz-ing or a dis-aster dar-ling, Macmillan Cancer Support is a fantastic cause which I'm proud to be supporting. I'm sure Sandip will be my John Travolta.

SANDIP PATEL (FURNIVAL CHAMBERS)

At school I was called Twinkle Toes. It was a boys school. I am now at Furnival Chambers and my dancing between courts, like my practice, is criminal. I am delighted that I have a part in Strictly Furnival. A boy's dream come true.

Celebrity Profiles

RUSSELL GRANT

Russell's first television acting role was at the tender age of ten for BBC TV's very successful Wednesday Play. He was then signed up by Richard Price, Head of LWT Entertainment and was cast in On The Buses, Please Sir!, The Fenn Street Gang, the Doctor series.

Russell's professional dream came true when given the opportunity to learn how to dance on the BBC's top-rated series Strictly Come Dancing (2011). Russell was partnered with World Champion Latin dancer, Flavia Cacace. The popular couple won both critics and viewers hearts and were nominated for a BAFTA TV Highlight of the Year when Russell was shot out of a cannon as part of their Jive routine at the Wembley Arena.

IAN WAITE AND CAMILLA DALLERUP

Ian's dance career started at the age of ten when he accompanied his younger brother to Saturday dance class and was enticed onto the dance floor for the first time. Ian then competed internationally where he won the title of 'European Latin American Champion' at the age of 17. He went on to represent England in many European and World finals and became the UK 10 Dance Champion.

After five years in the Netherlands (where he became Dutch Champion) he returned to the UK and his talent began to reach a wider audience just as the BBC launched its ballroom-TV extravaganza, "Strictly Come Dancing". Captivated by show's first series, Ian secured a place as a professional dancer to debut on our screens in Series 2 and has been part of the Strictly family ever since.

Danish born Camilla Dallerup moved to England 17 years ago and had a long successful career as a professional dancer before she became a regular on the British TV screens. Camilla rose to fame as Strictly Come Dancing's most successful female professional dancer and after 6 series she won the trophy in 2008. With her warm and fun personality she has since gotten the nation fit with GMTV's dancing queen diet and has been to the jungle and back with I'm a Celeb.
